Name of The Paragraph

At present 1) ———————— is a dangerous and harmful Problem. It is one of the greatest problem in our country. In fact, it has become a problem in our daily life. There are many causes behind this problem. 2) ————————-etc are the main causes of this problem. This single problem creates a lot of other problems. It affects our personal, social and even national life. This problem is going out of control day by day. We cannot think of a happy and care free life because of it. Nobody should remain idle in the face of such an alarming problem. Every body should come forward to check this problem at any cost. The authority should take necessary steps against it. New laws may be passed if necessary. The public should be made conscious of it. Meeting and seminars may be arranged focusing on the bad effect of it. Thus, if we try honestly, this problem will disappear one day.
